
Shared fractions contribute in full to every relevant predictor domain; domain percentages overlap and need not sum to 100%.